

Privacy policy

SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG takes the protection of your personal data seriously, and complies strictly with the regulations of the German Data Protection Acts. Only such personal data as are technically necessary shall be requested on this website. Under no circumstances shall the data obtained be sold or disclosed to third parties for any other reason.

Data processing on this website

SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG automatically requests and saves information to its server log files that is transmitted to us by your browser. This includes:

- Browser type / version
- Operating system used
- Referrer URL (the last page visited)
- Host name of the accessing computer (IP address)
- Time of the server request

These data cannot be attributed to specific individuals by SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG. These data are not consolidated with any other data sources, and the data are deleted after statistical evaluation.

Security of your personal data

SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG protects your personal data against unauthorised access, utilisation or publication, and ensures that your personal information that you store on the server are located in a controlled, secure environment in which unauthorised access and publication are prevented.

Disclosure of your data

SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG shall not disclose your personal data to third parties, except where this is required for the handling of business transactions. The data disclosed shall be restricted to the necessary minimum. Where SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG is obliged to do so by law or as a result of a court ruling, however, we shall disclose your data only to such state institutions and authorities as are authorised to receive this information.

Alteration of the data protection regulations

SPAX International GmbH & Co. KG reserves the right to alter these security and data protection measures if the development of technology makes this necessary. In such cases, we shall also adjust our data protection notices accordingly. Please therefore note the respective latest version of our data protection declaration.

External links

This website contains links to websites of third parties ("external links"). These websites are the responsibility of the respective operators. When first installing the external links, the provider examined the third-party content for any statutory violations. At that time no statutory violations were apparent. The provider has no influence whatsoever over the current and future structure and content of linked websites. The placement of external links does not mean that the provider appropriates the content to which the link refers. It is not reasonable for the provider to constantly inspect the content of external links for statutory violations without specific reason to suspect the same. If statutory violations become known, such external links shall be deleted immediately.

Cookies

The websites make use of 'cookies' in a number of places. These serve to make our facilities more user-friendly, more effective and more secure. Cookies are small text files that are stored to your computer and saved by your browser. Most of the cookies we use are "session cookies". These are automatically deleted at the end of your visit. Cookies cause no damage to your computer and do not contain viruses.

Access rights

You have the right to access the data saved regarding your person, and to know how they were obtained, who has received them, and the purpose of the data processing. Information regarding these saved data can be requested from info@spax.com

Further information

We value your trust. We therefore wish to answer any questions you may have at any time regarding the handling of your personal data. If you have any questions that are not answered by this data protection declaration, or if you desire more detailed information on any aspect, please contact us by sending an e-mail to <mailto:info@spax.com>.
